Processing deals

We will process your instruction to deal on the day on which we receive it, subject to:

- your instruction being received by 9am (GMT) on that day
- our offices being open for work on that day
- all necessary documentation being supplied
- compliance with your policy Terms and Conditions.

If, for whatever reason and further to the above criteria, we are unable to process your instruction on the day on which we receive it, we will process it on our first working day thereafter.

Only written instructions (including facsimile copies) signed by the policyholder, trustees, appointed investment adviser or, if applicable, an authorised signatory of that company will be accepted. On no occasion will RL360° accept verbal or emailed dealing instructions. We cannot accept responsibility for any failure to action an instruction resulting from an error in transmission or if the fax is illegible, incomplete or unclear. Originals of faxes are not required.

Ordinarily, your chosen investments will receive the price on the next dealing day following your instructions being processed by us. For investments that are not priced on a daily basis, we require two full working days notice in advance of any dealing cut-off date. Where two working days notice has not been provided we will do our best to process your instructions, but we cannot guarantee that they will be processed in time, therefore your deals could be delayed until the next available dealing date.

Sale proceeds will always be received in the currency in which the investments were purchased, unless you state otherwise.

Purchases will only be made where there are sufficient funds within your policy cash account to cover the purchase, and related dealing costs. If you are purchasing an investment that is not in the same currency as your policy currency, and there are insufficient funds to proceed with the purchase, then we will require a foreign exchange instruction prior to placing the deal.

General

The investments linked to your policy are owned by us, and in most cases will not be eligible for compensation under investment compensation schemes.

Some assets may be subject to withholding taxes and it is unlikely that RL360 will be able to reclaim any amount deducted.

If you link your policy to a cash deposit account your investment may not be covered by any depositors compensation scheme, should the deposit account provider become insolvent. This is because you are not the owner of the account(s) linked to your policy, we are. Therefore the amount (if any) which we recover under any depositors compensation scheme could be substantially less than the amount you might have been able to recover had you owned the cash deposit account(s) yourself. Where any cash deposits are chosen, we will require the policyholder to provide us with a declaration in addition to this form to confirm they understand the risks involved.

Where the provider of an investment linked to your policy becomes insolvent, your policy will incur the loss.

It is the responsibility of the policyholder(s) and (where applicable), their appointed investment adviser, to read the prospectus and any other documentation associated with the asset being selected, including any risk warnings.

Some investments are designed for Experienced, Professional, Qualified or Sophisticated Investor Funds as defined under their applicable legislation and are not intended for general sale to retail investors. Where we are required under a jurisdictions regulations to give an undertaking to the asset provider that the Policyholder has sufficient investment experience and/or knowledge of the risks associated with the purchase, we will require the policyholder to provide us with a declaration to that effect at the time the investment instruction is submitted to RL360°. RL360° will require this declaration prior to carrying out the purchase of the asset.

All investments must be acceptable to us and compliant with any regulations that may apply. We cannot accept responsibility for any losses incurred whilst determining if an investment is acceptable, or should we decide not to allow a particular investment.

You should make yourself aware of the fees payable in relation to your chosen investments. You should note that these fees are required to cover the costs of promoting and distributing the investments including, in some cases, commission payments to your financial adviser and/or investment adviser. Where applicable, please ensure that the authorised signatory list(s) that we hold for this policy are up-to-date before submitting dealing instructions. Where authorised signatories have changed and we are unable to match those on this form with our records, this will delay deals being placed.

Any choice of investment is entirely at the risk of the policyholder/investment adviser/trustees. It is the responsibility of the policyholder/investment adviser/trustees to ensure that any prospectus or other offering document has been read and understood in respect of any investment chosen. RL360° accepts no responsibility for losses, damages and/or costs (including but not limited to legal fees) that may be incurred as a consequence of subscribing to or otherwise acquiring an interest on your behalf.

We are not authorised to provide you with investment advice, and we would always recommend that you consult a professional before making investment decisions.

Policyholder cash deposit declaration

Policy number

I fully acknowledge and accept the risks associated with linking the value of my policy to a cash deposit account, and I am aware that my deposit may not be covered under any depositor compensation scheme should the deposit account provider become insolvent. I understand that this is because RL360 Insurance Company Limited holds this account on my behalf. Therefore the amount (if any) which is recoverable under any scheme could be substantially less than the amount I might have been able to recover had I owned the cash deposit account directly.

I accept that in the event of the insolvency of my chosen deposit account provider, RL360 Insurance Company Limited will have no responsibility for any loss. By signing below I acknowledge the above statements and request that a deposit is made with the provider and account named below.

I am aware and acknowledge that the institution(s) and/or their subsidiaries which I choose to invest in may not be institutions or subsidiaries where RL360° would normally hold balances or deposits.
